Moebius Syndrome Day

Thank you to everyone who supported this worthy cause and came dressed in purple. A special mention to Mia Blackwell for leading our Moebius Awareness Assembly. She gave us lots of information about Moebius syndrome by presenting as well as answering questions. We raised £96.41. Well done everyone!

Coffee Morning

On Tuesday 2nd February KS1 are inviting parents into our classes for a Science coffee morning. We are going to be carrying out an experiment involving Skittles which the children are very excited about! We would love to get you involved by helping your child to carry out the experiment. If you can come, please return the letter to your child's class teacher so we can organise seating. We also look forward to seeing you for coffee in the hall after the experiment.

Internet Safety Day

Glenbrook pupils will be learning about how to stay safe online on Tuesday 9th February. During this day pupils will be spreading messages of joy by writing positive notes and giving them to each other to stick onto their uniform. By the end of the day, everyone will be covered in notes to make them smile! It will be a positive and fun day with an important message about internet safety.

Reading Eggs

All of the children have now been introduced to a reading programme at school called Reading Eggs. They have all been issued a username and password which will be in their school diaries. They can also access this at home on either computers or tablets. They can improve their reading by playing games, reading on-line books and competing against each other. There are three girls in Year 5 who have already started their own mini Reading Eggs competition at home! If you are not already familiar with the programme, please ask your child to show it to you. It's a fantastic and fun way for them to improve and enjoy reading.

Lottery Attendance

The winner of the attendance lottery for last week was Tony Jepson. The winner for this week is Ellie Roebuck and Megan Browne for the foundation year group. Well done everyone!
